2. Supplies

The prices and all other conditions are applied to the materials supplied and invoiced by the Akifix® Company. The Seller reserves the right to make changes to the products, conditions and prices at any time without notice, depending on changes in market conditions and costs (production, transport, etc...) or any other cause. It also does not guarantee the absolute fidelity of the colors and aesthetics reproduced in the catalog and on the site to the real ones.

3. Offers and prices

- a) Offers are indicative and non-binding and therefore do not entail any processing obligation.
- b) The ordering proposals must be sent to the Selling Company directly by mail or fax or by the sales agents of the same. In all cases the Company reserves the right to accept or change them at its own discretion, and only a written confirmation of the direction of the Seller or the actual current execution of the order may be considered binding. However, the transmission of a proposal of order implies that the buyer accepts the full acceptance of the general conditions of sale.
- c) The prices resulting from the lists in force at the time of individual deliveries will be applied. The Seller assumes no responsibility for errors or omissions contained in its price lists or in its promotional material.

4. Payment Terms

- c) It should be noted that no other form of payment, other than the one established, will be considered valid by the Seller.
- d) In case of any discount for cash payment, it will be valid only in the case of receipt by the Seller of the balance of the invoices no later than 8 days. from the issue of the same and will be applied to the amount of the supply, with the exception of transport and packaging. Beyond this limit, the payment will be considered normal and the discount canceled and recharged.
- e) In case of receipt of negative information (e.g. protests, enforcement actions against the debtor etc...) or changes in the client's balance sheet or failure to pay at the expiry of even a single supply or part of it, the Seller is authorized to consider all outstanding payments as immediately payable, whatever their original due date (art. 1186 CC), or to claim particular guarantees on future payments. The Seller reserves the right not to process or suspend the execution of the supply in the event of a change in the aforementioned conditions, pursuant to art. 1461 of the Italian Civil Code. In this case, the customer will have no right to claim damages.

5. Shipments and deliveries

The delivery terms must always be considered as indicative. However, the Seller undertakes to make deliveries within the shortest time possible. The Seller does not, however, assume any responsibility for damages directly or indirectly resulting from delivery delays or delayed execution of a contract. The minimum quantity for deliveries is related to the type of product and is established directly with the Seller. The sale is to be effected by the departure of goods (EXW - EX WORKS Incoterms 2023), unless otherwise expressly stated in writing. The goods will be available up to 7 days. After this deadline, the Seller will be able to proceed with the delivery with the carrier at its discretion, with the risk and the cost of transport anyway to the customer.

The customer declares to know all the technical characteristics of the products purchased, their proper storage and application; therefore it raises the Seller from any liability caused by the failure to comply with the aforementioned standards. The customer is obliged to check the quality and quantity of the goods at the time of delivery, to transcribe the voucher or the baggage found in the shipping document and make it to be signed by the driver or Railway Authority in case of wagon delivery, and to follow written communication no later than 8 days from delivery.
